1. Welcome & Introduction

Hello and welcome! Thank you for joining our company, where we strive to create an inclusive, productive, and innovative workplace. We can't wait to see what you will achieve with us.

This employee handbook defines who we are and how we work together. We will do everything possible to create a fair and productive workplace, but we need your help. We've created this handbook to guide you.

This handbook isn't a contract or a guarantee of employment. It's a collection of our expectations, commitments and responsibilities. Please read this employee handbook carefully and consult it whenever you need to.

Our Mission

We are committed to building great software that helps companies find and hire great people. Our mission drives everything we do — from how we build our product to how we treat each other at work.

Our Core Values

- Integrity: We act with honesty and transparency in all interactions.
- Collaboration: We believe great outcomes are achieved together.
- Innovation: We encourage creative thinking and bold ideas.
- Respect: We treat every person with dignity and fairness.
- Excellence: We hold ourselves to the highest standards of quality.

2. Employment Basics

In this section, we explain our employee contract types and define our basic employment policies.

2.1 Employment Contract Types

Full-time employees work at least 30 hours per week or 130 hours per month on average.

Part-time employees are those who work fewer than 30 hours per week.

Full-time and part-time employees can have either temporary or indefinite duration contracts. Full-time employees under an indefinite duration contract are entitled to our company's full benefits package.

We remind you that employment is 'at-will.' This means that you or our company may terminate our employment relationship at any time and for any non-discriminatory reason.

2.2 Equal Opportunity Employment

Our company is an equal opportunity employer. We don't tolerate discrimination against protected characteristics including gender, age, sexual orientation, race, nationality, ethnicity, religion, disability, and veteran status. We want all employees (including executives and HR) to treat others with respect and professionalism. In practice, this means that we:

- Hire and promote people based on skills, experience or potential and try to reduce bias in every process (e.g. through structured interviews).
- Make accommodations to help people with disabilities move about safely on our premises and use our products, services and equipment.
- Use inclusive, diversity-sensitive language in all official documents, signs and job ads.
- Conduct diversity and communication training regularly.

Apart from those actions, we commit to penalizing every discriminatory, offensive or inappropriate behavior. To do this properly, we ask you to report any discriminatory action against yourself or your colleagues to HR. Our company will not retaliate against you if you file a complaint or discrimination lawsuit.

2.3 Recruitment and Selection Process

Our hiring steps might vary across roles, but we always aim for a process that is fair and effective in hiring great people. Our standard hiring process includes the following steps:

1. Identify the need for a new job opening.
2. Decide whether to hire externally or internally.
3. Review job descriptions and write a job ad.
4. Get approval for the job ad.
5. Select appropriate sources to post the job opening.

6. Decide on hiring stages and possible timeframes.
7. Review resumes in our company database/ATS.
8. Source passive candidates.
9. Shortlist applicants.
10. Screen and interview candidates.
11. Run background checks and check references.
12. Select the most suitable candidate.
13. Make an official offer.

2.4 Background Checks

If you want to run background checks on candidates, ask HR for guidance. This process is sensitive and we must always abide by laws and ensure candidates understand our intentions. As a general rule, commission a background check for finalists only. Use our contracted provider and ensure you have your candidates' permission.

2.5 Referrals

If you know someone who you think would be a good fit for a position at our company, feel free to refer them. If we end up hiring your referred candidate, you are eligible for a referral bonus. Our employee referral rewards may be higher if we hire your referred candidate in a hard-to-fill role.

Additional rules for rewards:

- We guarantee that every reward will be paid out within one month of the date we hired a candidate.
- There is no cap on the number of referrals an employee can make. All rewards will be paid accordingly.
- If two or more employees refer the same candidate, only the first referrer will receive the referral incentives.
- Referrers are still eligible for rewards even if a candidate is hired at a later time or gets hired for another position.

2.6 Attendance

We expect you to be present during your scheduled working hours. If you face an emergency that prevents you from coming to work one day, contact your manager as soon as possible. We will excuse unreported absences in cases of serious accidents or acute medical emergencies. But, whenever possible, we should know when you won't be coming in.

3. Workplace Policies

This section describes policies that apply to everyone at our company: employees, contractors, volunteers, vendors and stakeholders alike. These policies help us build a productive, lawful and pleasant workplace.

3.1 Confidentiality and Data Protection

We want to ensure that private information about clients, employees, partners and our company is well-protected. Examples of confidential information include:

- Employee records
- Unpublished financial information
- Data of customers, partners, and vendors
- Customer lists (existing and prospective)
- Unpublished goals, forecasts and initiatives marked as confidential

As part of our hiring process, we may ask you to sign non-compete and non-disclosure agreements (NDAs). We are also committed to:

- Restrict and monitor access to sensitive data.
- Develop transparent data collection procedures.
- Train employees in online privacy and security measures.
- Build secure networks to protect online data from cyberattacks.
- Establish data protection practices such as secure locks, data encryption, frequent backups, and access authorization.

Your Responsibilities

You must:

- Lock or secure confidential information at all times.
- Shred confidential documents when they're no longer needed.
- Make sure you view confidential information on secure devices only.
- Only disclose information to other employees when it's necessary and authorized.
- Keep confidential documents inside our company's premises unless it's absolutely necessary to move them.

You must not:

- Use confidential information for your personal benefit or profit.
- Disclose confidential information to anyone outside of our company.
- Replicate confidential documents and files and store them on insecure devices.

This policy is important for our company's legality and reputation. We will terminate any employee who breaches our confidentiality guidelines for personal profit. We may also discipline any unintentional breach of this policy depending on its frequency and seriousness.

3.2 Harassment and Violence

To build a happy and productive workplace, we need everyone to treat others well and help them feel safe. Each of us should do our part to prevent harassment and workplace violence.

Workplace Harassment

Harassment is a broad term and may include seemingly harmless actions, like gossip. We can't create an exhaustive list, but here are some instances that we consider harassment:

- Sabotaging someone's work on purpose.
- Engaging in frequent or unwanted advances of any nature.
- Commenting derogatorily on a person's ethnic heritage or religious beliefs.
- Starting or spreading rumors about a person's personal life.
- Ridiculing someone in front of others or singling them out to perform tasks unrelated to their job against their will.

Sexual harassment is illegal and we will seriously investigate relevant reports. If an employee is found guilty of sexual harassment, they will be terminated. If you're being harassed, whether by a colleague, customer or vendor, you can choose to talk to your offender (if safe), your manager, or HR. Anything you disclose will remain confidential.

Workplace Violence

Violence in our workplace is a serious form of harassment. It includes physical and sexual assault, destruction of property, threats to harm a person or property and verbal and psychological abuse. We want to avoid those incidents altogether, but we also want to be ready to respond if needed.

- Report to HR if you suspect or know that someone is being violent. Your report will be confidential and we will investigate the situation with discretion.
- Call our building's security if you witness incidents of severe physical violence. For your safety, avoid getting involved.

If HR finds that an employee commits an act of violence, we will terminate that employee and possibly press criminal charges.

3.3 Workplace Safety and Health

Our company is committed to creating a hazard-free workplace. To this end, we will ensure workplace safety through preventative action and emergency management.

We will periodically conduct risk assessments and job hazard analyses through a workplace safety committee to uncover health risks to employees. At a minimum, we will:

- Hold employee training sessions on safety standards and procedures.
- Make sure employees who work in dangerous locations are safe.
- Provide protective gear like gloves, protective uniforms and goggles.
- Direct inspectors and quality control employees to evaluate equipment and infrastructure regularly.

3.4 Smoke-Free & Drug-Free Workplace

Our company is a smoke-free and drug-free workplace. You can smoke only in designated smoking areas. Whether you are an employee, contractor or visitor, you must not bring, use, give away or sell any drugs on company premises. If you are caught with illegal drugs, or show that you are under the influence of substances, you will face disciplinary action up to and including termination.

We prohibit employees from consuming alcohol during working hours, but they may consume alcoholic drinks in moderation at company events.

4. Employee Code of Conduct

As an employee, all company policies mentioned above apply to you. We have some additional expectations about your behavior at work, which we outline here. We can't cover every single case of conduct, but we trust you to always use your best judgement. Reach out to your manager or HR if you face any issues or have any questions.

4.1 Dress Code

Our company's official dress code is Business Casual. However, an employee's position may also inform how they should dress. If you frequently meet with clients or prospects, conform to a more formal dress code. We expect you to be clean when coming to work and avoid wearing clothes that are unprofessional.

We also respect and permit grooming styles, clothing and accessories that are dictated by religious beliefs, ethnicity or disability.

4.2 Cyber Security and Digital Devices

This section deals with all things digital at work. We want to set some guidelines for using computers, phones, our internet connection and social media to ensure security and protect our assets.

Internet Usage

Our corporate internet connection is primarily for business. But, you can occasionally use our connection for personal purposes as long as they don't interfere with your job responsibilities. You must not use our internet connection to:

- Download or upload obscene, offensive or illegal material.
- Send confidential information to unauthorized recipients.
- Invade another person's privacy and gain access to sensitive information.
- Download or upload pirated movies, music, material or software.
- Visit potentially dangerous websites that can compromise our network and computers' safety.
- Perform unauthorized or illegal actions, like hacking, fraud or buying/selling illegal goods.

Cell Phone Policy

We allow use of cell phones at work. But, we also want to ensure that your devices won't distract you from your work or disrupt our workplace. We ask you to follow a few simple rules:

- Use your cell phone in a manner that benefits your work (business calls, productivity apps, calendars).
- Keep personal calls brief and use an empty meeting room or common area so as not to disturb your colleagues.
- Avoid playing games on your phone or texting excessively.

- Avoid using your phone for any reason while driving a company vehicle.
- Don't use your phone to record confidential information.

Corporate Email

Email is essential to our work. You should use your company email primarily for work, but we allow some personal use as long as it is safe and responsible. No matter how you use your corporate email, we expect you to avoid:

- Signing up for illegal, unreliable, disreputable or suspect websites and services.
- Sending unauthorized marketing content or emails.
- Registering for a competitor's services, unless authorized.
- Sending insulting or discriminatory messages and content.
- Intentionally spamming other people's emails, including your coworkers.

Social Media

We want to provide practical advice to prevent careless use of social media in our workplace. You are permitted to access your personal accounts at work. But, we expect you to act responsibly. Specifically, we ask you to:

- Discipline yourself. Avoid getting sidetracked by your social platforms.
- Ensure others know that your personal account or statements don't represent our company.
- Avoid sharing intellectual property or confidential information without prior authorization.
- Avoid any defamatory, offensive or derogatory content directed at colleagues, clients or partners.

4.3 Conflict of Interest

When you are experiencing a conflict of interest, your personal goals are no longer aligned with your responsibilities towards us. Conflicts of interest are a serious issue for all of us. We expect you to be vigilant to spot circumstances that create conflicts of interest, either to yourself or for your direct reports. Follow our policies and always act in our company's best interests.

If you are experiencing an ethical dilemma, talk to your manager or HR and we will try to help you resolve it.

4.4 Employee Relationships

Fraternization

Fraternization refers to dating or being friends with your colleagues. In this policy, 'dating' equals consensual romantic relationships and sexual relations. Non-consensual relationships constitute sexual violence and we prohibit them explicitly.

If you start dating a colleague, we expect you to maintain professionalism and keep personal discussions outside of our workplace. To avoid accusations of favoritism, abuse of authority and sexual harassment, supervisors must not date their direct reports.

Employment of Relatives

Everyone in our company should be hired, recognized or promoted because of their skills, character and work ethic. We would not like to see phenomena of nepotism, favoritism or conflicts of interest. To our company, a 'relative' is someone who is related by blood or marriage within the third degree to an employee.

- You must not be involved in a supervisory/reporting relationship with a relative.
- You cannot be transferred, promoted or hired inside a reporting relationship with a relative.
- You cannot be part of a hiring committee when your relative is interviewed for that position.

4.5 Solicitation and Distribution

We don't allow solicitation and distribution by non-employees in our workplace. As an employee, you may solicit from your colleagues only when you want to organize events for another employee, seek support for a company-sponsored cause, invite colleagues to authorized employee activities, or ask colleagues to participate in employment-related activities or groups protected by law.

5. Compensation & Development

In this section, we outline our guidelines for compensating employees according to their employment status. We also describe our performance management and employee development policies.

5.1 Compensation Status

There are two types of employees under FLSA guidelines:

- Non-exempt employees, who are covered by the FLSA's minimum wage and overtime provisions.
- Exempt employees, who aren't covered by the FLSA because they meet three exemption criteria: (a) they are paid at least $23,600 per year, (b) they are paid on a salary basis, and (c) they perform exempt job duties.

If you are unsure as to whether you should be exempt or not, please ask HR to clarify your status.

5.2 Overtime

Occasionally, we may need you to work more than your regular working hours. We will pay for overtime work according to local and national laws. If you are a non-exempt employee, you are entitled to overtime pay of one and a half times your wage. Please record your overtime hours accurately, so we can calculate your pay correctly. We also ask you to work overtime only after it's authorized by your supervisor.

5.3 Payroll

We pay your salary or wage at the end of each month by bank transfer. If you are an hourly employee, you should be diligent in clocking in and out using our timesheet software so we can accurately calculate your pay.

5.4 Performance Management

We have built our performance management practices to:

- Ensure you understand your job responsibilities and have specific goals to meet.
- Provide you with actionable and timely feedback on your work.
- Invest in development opportunities that help you grow professionally.
- Recognize and reward your work in financial or non-financial ways (e.g. employee awards).

To meet these objectives, we have established annual performance reviews. During these reviews, your manager will fill out your performance evaluation report and arrange a meeting with you to discuss it. Pay increases or bonuses are not guaranteed. But, we encourage managers to recommend rewards for their team members when they deserve them.

5.5 Employee Training and Development

We owe our success to our employees. To show our gratitude, we will invest in our employees' professional development. Each employee has $1,000 annually to spend on educational activities or material. Apart from online courses, we offer these training opportunities:

- Formal training sessions (individual or corporate).
- Employee coaching and mentoring.
- Seats at industry conferences.
- On-the-job training.
- Job shadowing and job rotation.

6. Benefits & Perks

In this section, we describe what we offer to our employees. We provide information on our health insurance plans and benefits like work from home options and company-issued equipment.

6.1 Employee Health

Employee health is important to us. We don't discriminate against people with disabilities or health conditions, but we want to do everything possible to help employees stay healthy. At a minimum, we provide group health insurance to all eligible employees. For more information about our insurance package, contact HR.

We have also established non-smoking and substance abuse policies to protect employee health. We will create a workplace with minimal noise and good lighting and offer free healthy snacks and wellness programs.

6.2 Workers' Compensation

We strive to keep our workplace safe, but accidents may happen occasionally. Employees who are injured at work (by accident or disease) can receive wage replacement, medical care and rehabilitation benefits according to workers' compensation laws, when appropriate. Please inform us of your injury as soon as possible.

6.3 Work From Home

If your job doesn't require you to be present at our premises, you can occasionally work from home (WFH). We normally allow one day per week. If you need to telecommute for more days per week, talk to your manager.

Please inform your manager that you want to work from home using our HRIS at least two days in advance. When you are working from home, please use an internet connection and devices that are fast and secure. Choose a place without loud noises or distractions.

6.4 Remote Working

Remote working refers to working from a non-office location on a temporary or permanent basis. If you're an office-based employee, you may work remotely for a maximum of two consecutive weeks per year for special circumstances. If you have another reason, talk to your manager.

6.5 Employee Expenses

There are some expenses that we will pay directly on your behalf (e.g. hotel rooms for work-related travel). But, we ask you to keep track and report on those reimbursable expenses that you pay yourself. We reimburse employee expenses that are related to:

- Business travel

- Relocation
- Education and training
- Outings with business partners or colleagues (upon approval)

Please keep receipts for all reimbursable expenses. You can submit them to your manager through our expense software within three months after the date of each expense.

6.6 Company-Issued Equipment

As an employee, you may receive a company cell phone, laptop or other device, or furniture. Unless otherwise mentioned in your contract, any equipment we offer belongs to our company and you may not sell it or give it away. You are responsible for keeping our equipment safe and in as good condition as possible.

We advise you to keep your company-issued computer, tablet and cell phone secure by keeping all devices password-protected, installing security updates as soon as available, and logging into company accounts through secure and private networks only.

7. Working Hours & Time Off

In this section, we explain our provisions for your working hours and time off.

7.1 Working Hours

Our company operates between 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. on weekdays. You may come to work at any time between 9 a.m. and 11 a.m., depending on your team's needs. Some departments may work after hours (e.g. customer support, shipping). If you work in these departments, you will follow a shift schedule as needed.

7.2 Paid Time Off (PTO)

Employees receive 20 days of Paid Time Off (PTO) per year. Your PTO accrual begins the day you join our company and you receive 1.7 days per month. You can take your PTO at any time after your first week with us. You will earn one additional day per year after your first year with our company, with a cap at 25 days overall.

If you want to use PTO, send a request through our HRIS. If your manager or HR approves, you are permitted to take your leave. You do not have to specify a reason for requesting PTO.

7.3 Holidays

Our company observes the following public holidays:

- New Year's Day
- Martin Luther King Day
- President's Day
- Good Friday/Easter Monday
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Columbus Day
- Veterans Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Christmas Day

Our company also offers one floating holiday, which you can take on any day you choose. If you want to observe a religious holiday that isn't included in our list, you may take unpaid time off for that day, or use your PTO.

7.4 Sick Leave

We offer one week of paid sick leave. You can take sick leave to recover from short-term illness, injuries, mental issues and other indisposition. If you have the flu or other contagious disease, please use your sick days. Inform your manager and send a sick leave request through our HRIS.

Occasionally, we may ask you to submit a physician's note or other medical certification if you are absent for more than three consecutive days of sick leave.

7.5 Bereavement Leave

Losing a loved one is traumatizing. If this happens to you while you work with us, we want to support you and give you time to cope and mourn. We offer three days of paid bereavement leave. You may take your bereavement leave on non-consecutive days to arrange or attend a funeral, resolve matters of inheritance, fulfill family obligations, or simply mourn.

If you have to travel long-distance for a funeral or service, you can take two additional unpaid days off. If you require more time, please use your PTO.

7.6 Jury Duty and Voting

If you are called for jury duty and you are an exempt employee, you can take one day off without deduction from your salary. On election day, you can take two hours off to vote. To keep good records, we ask you to bring us a copy of your summons for jury duty and a document that proves you served.

7.7 Parental Leave

Caring for a newborn is an exciting time for parents. We want to support new mothers and fathers in their first months of parenthood. Our company offers three months of paid maternity and paternity leave. If local or national law stipulates longer leave, we will follow the law.

If you are about to be a new mother or father (either through childbirth or adoption), talk to HR to arrange your leave. Please give us at least three months' notice before your leave begins.

We are committed to helping new parents transition back to work after their leave ends. We offer remote working options, flexible hours, onsite or external paid day care, and lactation rooms.

8. Leaving Our Company

In this section, we describe our procedures regarding resignation and termination of our employees.

8.1 Progressive Discipline

Here we outline steps we will take to address employee misconduct. We want to give employees a chance to correct their behavior when possible and assist them in doing so. Our progressive discipline process has six steps of increasing severity:

1. Verbal warning
2. Informal meeting with supervisor
3. Formal reprimand
4. Formal disciplinary meeting
5. Penalties
6. Termination

Different offenses correspond to different steps in our disciplinary process. Minor, one-time offenses will trigger Step 1. More severe violations (e.g. sexual harassment) will trigger Step 5 or higher.

8.2 Resignation

You resign when you voluntarily inform HR or your manager that you will stop working for our company. We also consider you resigned if you don't come to work for three consecutive days without notice.

You are not obliged to give us advance notice before resigning. But, for efficiency's sake, we ask that you give at least two weeks' notice, if possible. If you hold a highly specialized or executive position, we ask that you give us at least a month's notice, when possible.

We accept verbal resignations, but we prefer that you submit a written and signed notice of resignation for our HR records. We will reply with an acceptance of resignation letter within two days.

8.3 Termination

Terminating an employee is always unpleasant but sometimes necessary. If that happens, we want to ensure we act lawfully and respectfully. We may terminate an employee either for cause or without cause.

- For cause termination is justified when an employee breaches their contract, engages in illegal activities, disrupts our workplace, performs below acceptable standards or causes damage or financial loss to our company.
- Without cause termination refers to redundancies or layoffs that may be necessary if we cease some of our operations or re-assign job duties within teams. We will follow applicable laws regarding notice and payouts.

We will offer severance pay to eligible employees. We may also help employees who were terminated without cause to find work elsewhere, if possible.

8.4 References

When we terminate employees, we may provide references for those who leave in good standing. This means that employees shouldn't have been terminated for cause. If you are laid off, you may receive references. If you resign, you may ask for references and your manager has a right to oblige or refuse.

9. Policy Revision

We will always strive for fairness and equal opportunity and penalize offensive and illegal behaviors. But, as laws and our environment change, we may revise and modify some of our policies.

We have established an annual revision of our handbook to bring it up to date with legislation and employment trends. We also ask you to contact HR if you spot any inconsistencies or mistakes. And, if you have any ideas about how to improve our workplace, we are happy to hear them.

Employee Acknowledgement

Please sign to acknowledge that you've read this handbook and that you are committed to following our policies. If you need any clarifications, feel free to ask HR.
